

Central Dakota Children's Choir

Central Dakota Children's Choir (CDCC) was established in July of 1998 to inspire children to a lifelong love of singing through the performance of fine choral music. The organization has grown from a single choir of 65 students to a pre-choir and 5 choirs featuring 330 youth in grades 2-12 from public, private, and homeschools throughout south central North Dakota.

CDCC is a comprehensive educational choral program. The choirs are directed by outstanding and committed choral educators. Youth with a desire to sing and grow in their musical abilities and experiences have the opportunity to participate in the program for up to 11 years.
